PEACE LEAGUE IS DISAPPOINTED AT RESULT ATTAINED

Hopes for Disarmament Progress at U.
S. Conference

(By The Associated Press)

GENEVA, Oct. 1.—Disappointment in the absence of results attained by the league of nations since the last assembly and hope in the forthcoming Washington conference were the two principle sentiments expressed in today's debate by the assembly on disarmament. Lord Robert Cecil who presented the committee's report on disarmament said he hoped the Washington conference would do something for the control of private manufacture and traffic in arms.

Captain Melbourne Bruce of Australia, who followed Lord Robert said it was a matter of as much interest to Europe as to Australia. If his country were obliged to go on arming, following the example of the Asiatic countries, in order to protect its 12,000 miles of sea coast.

Hjalmar Branting of Sweden, expressed the opinion that conditions in some countries made it impossible for them to begin disarmament now.

"But that is no reason why disarmament in other countries should not begin immediately," he said. "All the countries would appreciate steps taken by the league in this direction."

Defends France.
M. Noblemaire of France, defended his country against accusations of militarism.

"Our attitude is the same as it was last year, and the same as it was in the Hotel Crillon in 1919 when France demanded disarmament contingent upon only national security," he said. "No one wants war less than France, because no one suffered so much from the war as she did."

"All France wants is her security. Germany practically is disarmed militarily, but there remains to be effected her disarmament in spirit."

"It is in this spirit of loyalty and real patriotism that the French delegation is going to Washington to consider their naval disarmament, which, in its way has the same importance as the military disarmament of which we are speaking."

WILL NOT FRAME WAGE DEMANDS OF MINE WORKERS

Convention Votes to Postpone Action
Until February

(By The Associated Press)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 1.—Postponement until next February in the framing of coal miners' wage demands was voted today by the convention of the United Mine Workers of America. In doing so, the delegates overwhelmingly approved the recommendation of President John L. Lewis, who urged the delay so as not to disclose the miners terms six months before the expiration of present agreements with operators.

Altho there was no discussion of new demands the delegates indicated they favored a strike, if necessary to obtain increases for they also approved the report of Vice President Murray in which he declared in favor of fighting for improvement of contracts in both anthracite and bituminous fields that expire next March 31.

In addition the convention went on record as opposing wage reductions by pledging the union's financial support to Colorado and Washington miners now idle after refusing to accept the reductions. Further the delegates voted to raise approximately $1,500,000 by special assessment of members of the union but in doing so did not specify any purpose for using the money. The action laying the assessment was taken after approving the report of William Green, secretary-treasurer, which showed the union's net available cash to be $487,000.00.

Will Appeal to Harding.
Apparently alarmed by private advices from the West Virginia strike district, the delegates also decided that an appeal be made to President Harding for the protection of 138 miners who are prisoners in the Logan and Williamson county jails.

President Lewis appointed a committee to call at the white house next week and in doing this he declared "there is ample reason to believe the lives of President C. F. Keeney of West Virginia district and Secretary Fred Mooney and others are in jeopardy."

Keeney and Mooney are among those held on murder charges. The committee to call on President Harding is composed of J. B. Wiggins of Springs, West Virginia; F. E. Hughes, of Clifford, Ill. and E. J. Giles of Charleston, Iowa.

Besides its action on the West Virginia situation and the wage question the convention authorized a test case of the Kansas industrial court act being prosecuted to the supreme court.

The attack on the Kansas industrial court probably will be by a suit to enjoin the enforcement of the law creating it. Mr. Lewis told the delegates that efforts would be made to have international and Kansas district officials to agree on a case.

BITTER ATTACK ON UNION LABOR MADE BY SEN. NELSON

Says Workmen Themselves Responsible for Conditions

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—An attack on union labor by Senator Nelson, Republican, Minnesota and a successful fight against a committee amendment, which it was claimed, would discriminate against American ships in favor of foreign craft, marked senate consideration today of the Republican tax revision bill.

Senator Nelson declared that the workmen themselves were responsible for most of the unemployment over the country because they would not consent to a readjustment of wages. To the railroad workers he attributed part of the responsibility for present high freight rates, asserting that until there is a reduction in the high wages and bonuses allowed during government control the people could not hope to get cheaper transportation.

Referring to the threatened strike of railroad workers, the Minnesota senator said he was getting tired of threats to tie up the transportation systems and thought there should be a show down.

"Let the people understand once for all what these men mean by threatening to strike," said Senator Nelson. "Let them understand that it means the stopping of food supplies and other essentials, want and starvation in our cities and towns and I venture the prediction that the American people will rise in their might and wipe these men from the face of the earth."

Opposes Amendment.
The Minnesota senator was opposing a house amendment to exempt the first $500 of income from investments of individuals in building and loan associations, which the finance committee struck out and which Senator Overman, Democrat, North Carolina, moved to retain. The committee action finally was sustained.

Senator Nelson said the slackness in the building industry was due almost wholly to high wages paid to workmen. "If bricklayers, carpenters and other house building mechanics would come down from salaries of $10 and $12 a day, to $4 or $5 a day," the senator declared, "there would be the greatest boon in the building industry ever seen in this country."

The senate accepted a contested committee amendment under which the head of a family would make a single return for himself and wife irrespective of laws in eight states under which the wife actually owns one half of the joint property of the marital community.

Senator Broussard, Democrat, Louisiana, has an amendment pending to strike out the section containing this amendment and this will come up later.

LOTS OF BUILDING IS IN PROSPECT

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—It was believed today that work on sixty million dollars worth of buildings would be reopened next week as the result of the Chicago Building Trades Council's action in re-affirming recent wage decisions given by Judge K. M. Landis arbitrator in the building trades controversy.

The re-affirmation was virtually forced by Judge Landis' announcement that he would refuse to hear petitions for a re-hearing of wage claims of the unions until all members of every union were back on the job. The decision was concurred in by the carpenters and plumbers unions which refused to enter into the original agreement. The hoisting engineers alone were defiant and were expelled from the trades council.

The controversy has tied up building operations here for several months.

OFFICERS RESERVE CORPS MEMBERS TO BE PLACED ON DUTY

Regulations Announced Whereby Thousands of World War Veterans Will be Assigned for Duty in Reserve Army Frame Work—Provision is Made for Promotion of Men

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Detailed regulations under which thousands of world war veterans now members of the officers reserve corps will be assigned for duty in the reserve army frame work contemplated by the National defense act, were made public today by the war department and will be distributed immediately to the 66,800 officers who now compose the corps.

Assignment of reserve officers to the 27 divisions of organized reserves thruout the country will follow immediately as the first step in general staff plans under which an army of more than four million could be quickly mobilized at need.

In conformity with war time practice, the regulations provide that only men with actual training or experience may be appointed reserve officers of the line. This includes appointments in the infantry, cavalry, field or coast artillery and air service, the combatant arms of the army.

Assignment of line officers will be by corps, area commanders and the regulations provide for localization of officers to units of the organized reserve in the vicinities in which the officers live. For this purpose more officers than required by organization tables may be attached to such units.

Three Groups Created.
Three groups of officers are created for assignment purposes. These are the general assignment group, to be assigned by the war department and including men regarded as eligible for duty of a special character in connection with the general staff branch assignment group, composed of specialists in the various non-combatant branches of the army, to be assigned by chiefs of such branches, and the territorial assignment group, including both classes of reserve officers, to be assigned for duty by corps area commanders.

Provision is made for promotion of reserve officers even during peace times for merit, with the restriction that an advanced rank may be granted only where there is a definite place in the higher grade for the officer to fill. It is also emphasized thruout the regulations that no reserve officer may be called to active service for training for more than fifteen days in any year except with his consent.

A special section of the regulations covers the dual national guard and reserve corps commissions authorized by the act. There is no conflict in such commissions. It is stated, and national guard officers holding also reserve commissions would pass into the reserve group entirely in the event of federalization of the guard for war, retaining their assignments in the guard, but available for duty with any part of the army.

PERSHING GUARD ARRIVES IN PARIS FOR CEREMONIES

General Will Pay Tribute to France's Unknown Soldier

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Oct. 1.—A battalion of American troops, the pick of the American forces in Germany, arrived in Paris tonight from Coblenz virtually unnotified to act as a guard of honor for General Pershing, chief of staff of the American army, when he lays the congressional medal of honor on the tomb of the unknown soldier of France tomorrow morning.

The American soldiers and officers, 570 in number, are the guests of the French government, the enlisted men occupying the barracks at the French military school, while the officers are housed in the French military club at the school.

Although this is the first time a large number of American soldiers have been in Paris since the victory parade of July, 1919, the arrival of the two special trains bearing them in a large coal yard near the military school was devoid of demonstration of any kind. One French captain and four sergeants welcomed the American troops in the name of the French army.

CAPITAL UNITES WITH LABOR TO HELP JOBLESS

Will Work Together to Help Get Nation's Idle to Work

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Capital and labor joined forces here tonight to give impetus to carrying out their community organizations of the emergency program for the immediate relief of the nation's idle wage earners adopted by the national conference on unemployment. In an appeal to the business man and chambers of commerce of the country to actively support the program Joseph H. DeFrees, president of the United States declared that business has a great responsibility in the situation it must furnish employment.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor in a formal statement expressed his confidence that "the trade union movement in each community will join energetically in an effort to assist in the task of providing work for the thousands who are idle."

Both Mr. DeFrees and Mr. Gompers are members of the conference and assisted in drafting the emergency program.

Mr. DeFrees called upon the business men to offer the mayors in their communities immediate assistance in order to speed up the establishment of unemployment committees on a national basis.

"The situation cannot be met without proper organization," he said. "It is primarily a community problem. The local business man, thru his organization and individually should make every effort to meet the situation in his city. The existing unemployment presents a real problem which must have immediate attention."

Dissemination of the emergency program was undertaken today by the conference members. Many of them residing in nearby states have gone to their homes until the sub-committees begin the consideration of permanent unemployment measures next week and are expected to aid in the organization work of their communities.

course in the senate has been such as to warrant the confidence of the people. He cannot well be spared from the senate.
If the Kansas miners refrain from work as long as Howat is in jail they and their families will be the ones to suffer loss. Just now there is enough surplus coal in Illinois to take care of all the needs in Kansas. When industries are running only part time there is not a particle of danger of a shortage of domestic coal.
Fire prevention day is again near at hand. The observance of fire prevention day and week is very well worth while. There is no trouble in proving that a very large percentage of fires are the result of carelessness and so could be prevented.
Losses by fire add to the financial burden of the people, and consideration as to fire costs and the means for preventing them.

are well worthy of the serious attention of the public.
Roger Babson, famous statistician, now speaks a cheering word for the street railway. He says that the business may continue poor for the street railways, in some of the smaller cities, that in most instances the street railroads are to prosper again.
Their main difficulties have been in the larger cost for materials and labor. In the big systems labor costs 46 per cent. The result of the improved conditions, Mr. Babson believes, will raise the quotations for street railway securities, for which there has really been no market.

The conference on unemployment suggests, among other things, that municipal and state work should be pushed all over the country now instead of delaying until next spring. One suggestion with this suggestion is that a very large percentage of the proposed public work is out of doors and cold weather will soon interfere.
Another thing that weakens the suggestion is that just now many a municipality is struggling to meet its ordinary obligations without taking on anything new, at least until the taxes for next year are available.

AN OCCASION FOR PRAYER
The Chicago Journal of Commerce says:
"Thirty Protestant denominations, forming the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, call for the observance of November 6 as a special day of prayer in all their churches for the success of the international conference on armament limitations.
"This call has a direct bearing on business in general—not only the business of the churches, but the business of the nations and their peoples—because its purpose is to relieve civilization to a very large extent of the prodigious money cost of maintaining huge armies, navies and other war equipment. The tax of the armament systems on business in general, on property and living costs, is beyond computation. If, therefore, prayer will help relieve the world of this huge expense, then (we say it reverently) let us pray!
"What is prayer? In its broadest definition, it is all communion between the soul and God. It is based on the belief that God is our heavenly Father and may be reached by our petitions—that He not only hears them but is influenced by them. Prayer also has a direct effect upon those who pray, so that even those who doubt the efficacy of prayer as a means of influencing the Almighty may yet pray because of the undeniably beneficial effects it will have on their own souls.
"Surely, men may well pray with mighty fervor for the lifting of the armament burden from the shoulders of men; for relief from the invention and building of these engines of war whose sole purpose is the destruction of human life and property; for the abolition of the most oppressive tax on the savings and the business of men the most galling of all government expenditures in that it robs the nations of enormous funds that might be applied to a thousand noble and beneficent purposes!"

TWO ARRESTS ON LIQUOR LAW VIOLATIONS

Jefferson Scott and Antonio DeFrates Must Answer Charges of Selling Booze—States Attorney Robinson Directs Campaign Against Offender.

As a result of some investigation work which has been going on under the direction of State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson, two arrests were made yesterday on charges of illicit liquor selling. Jefferson Scott, colored, of 453 Lorton street, was arrested by Chief Kiloran, Desk Sergeant Casey and Patrolman John McGinnis. Several gallons of liquor were found in the home, in jugs and bottles. It is of the white mule variety.
The search at the home of Antonio DeFrates, a short distance north of the city was made by Sheriff Weatherford and Deputy Sheriffs Andrews and Roach. They found no liquor but DeFrates was arrested and later gave bond in the court of Justice Opperman. Scott is now in jail.
Search warrants had been issued in each case and State's Attorney Robinson said that he had directed the raids because of the strong evidence in his possession of bootlegging. The state's attorney has for weeks past been making a study of the new Illinois prohibition law which increases the responsibility of state's attorneys for enforcement. Mr. Robinson has thru various lines been collecting evidence and purposes to use his best endeavors to bring about the enforcement of the law in Morgan county.

WORDS OF PRAISE FOR RIGGSTON ROAD

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd W. Brown have returned from an automobile trip to Sedalia, Kansas City and Excelsior Springs, Mo. They were away from Jacksonville about 10 days and did not find road conditions in Missouri of a satisfactory kind.
Returning they were greatly impressed as they compared the roads over which they had been traveling in Missouri with the road between Riggston and Jacksonville.

"Just at present that road," Mr. Alexander said last night, "is in perfect condition. The surface is smooth and the roadway is wide. Nothing is better than an earth road when conditions are just right and certainly it was a pleasure to ride over the road from Riggston as we returned from our Missouri trip. This whole stretch of road west from Jacksonville into Scott county is in good condition and certainly every effort should be made to get hard road construction started there. The country which this road traverses brings an immense amount of business to Jacksonville."

Both bride and groom are very popular young people and have a host of friends who wish them well in their married life.

TWO HURT WHEN AUTOS COLLIDE

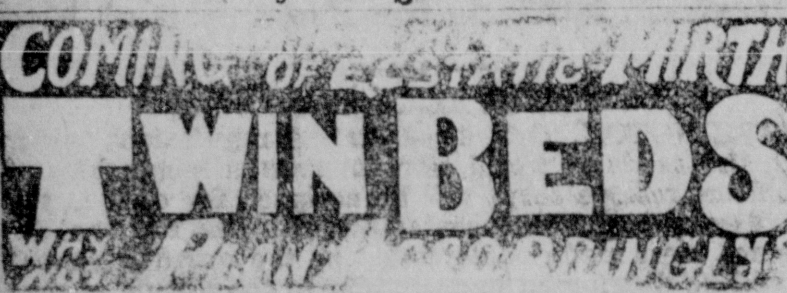

E. A. Hanson, in a Ford car, collided with a truck belonging to Luck's Market yesterday noon, at the corner of South West and College streets. The truck, driven by Walter Hill, turned over and the accident very nearly resulted in a tragedy. Bud Triplett and William Johnson, who were in the truck with Hill, were injured but not seriously. Triplett was the more seriously injured receiving many cuts and body bruises.
Both drivers claimed that the other was the cause of the accident but spectators say that the two cars were on each other before the occupants were aware of it. The truck was badly damaged and a wheel was knocked from the Ford.

If You Don't Want to Laugh, Don't Come
NOW WILL YOU BE GOOD?—LOOK who is going to be at our house Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday—Harold Lloyd in "Now or Never." Marguerite Clark in "Scrambled Wives."

The laughs that Lloyd builds are hearty, hale and hysterical. They have made him the greatest film comedian of the day, and this—his first three-reel offering—is the greatest of his career. See it if a good laugh is worth anything to you.

Harold Lloyd in "Now or Never"

"Speedy as the 20th Century Limited"

There's never been a comedy made that was half so funny. The critics say Lloyd's antics and capers are the funniest seen on Broadway in many a day. A brand of comedy that cannot be found in all other comedies put together. An accelerating series of hearty chuckles, term-pating in laughter that renders the laughter helpless. You'll get double pleasure out of this when you see it, and when you hear the other people laugh.

Broadway Stage Hit With Laughter Rippling from Every Reel
Marguerite Clark Returns to the Screen with Freshness and Charm That Make Her Doubly Delightful

Marguerite Clark took a holiday for a whole year. Far too long, say the movie fans! But now she's back—sparkling, prancing through the delightfully humorous situations that flit continuously through "Scrambled Wives." She's the girl with "a past to hide" and "ideas that simply won't behave." But the past becomes the present and mixes in on the future, and then the ideas crash.

A NICE GIFT TO THE OLD PEOPLE'S HOME

Thru the trust department of the Farmers State Bank and Trust Company of this city the National Benevolent Association of the Christian church has just been paid fourteen thousand dollars for the use and benefit of the Old People's Home of this city.

A number of years ago an elderly man living in a distant part of this state placed in the trust department of the Farmers State Bank and Trust company a well secured real estate mortgage note for fourteen thousand dollars under a trust agreement whereby the trust company was to pay the annual interest on said sum to the donor and his wife as long as either lived and after the death of both to turn the principal over to the National Benevolent Association.

The donor died not long since and the death of his wife occurred several years ago. In accordance with the terms of the trust, the principal has been turned over to the National Benevolent Association as beneficiary in perpetuity for the use and benefit of the Old People's Home.

SONG RECITAL GIVEN AT WOODSON CHURCH

C. E. McVay of Clearbrook, Virginia, heard in Fine Program at Christian Church Friday Evening—Other News From Woodson.

Woodson, Oct. 1.—A song recital and entertainment was given at the Christian church Friday evening, at which there was a large attendance. A small admission fee was charged and a goodly sum was thus realized for the church treasury. The recital was given by C. E. McVay of Clearbrook, Virginia, who has been in charge of the music during the series of special meetings which has just closed at the church.

Mr. McVay sang a number of selections, all of which were received with hearty applause. In addition there were readings by Mrs. Emma Hembrough, Mrs. Juanita Harney and Miss Edith Watt, and a pleasing vocal solo by Miss Marie Megginson. The accompanist for the evening was Mrs. Nettie Ezard. The program also included two dialogues, one by Mrs. Juanita Harney, Miss Meda Megginson and Miss Bernice Kitter and the other by Miss Edith Watt and Miss Hazel Rolson. These added in no small way to the entertainment as a whole. A piano solo by Miss Maurine Self was another feature of the evening which was well received.

The Golden Rule Bible class of the Christian church, of which Mrs. I. H. Fuller is the teacher, remembered the residents of the Old People's Home in Jacksonville Saturday in a very substantial way. It is the custom every three months for the members whose birthdays occur during that period to furnish a treat for the old people at the Home. Saturday each of the eight women whose birthdays fall during the months of July, August and September, dressed a chicken and sent it to the Home. Needless to say the action was one which the old people greatly appreciated.

Miss Alta Kehl, who has been ill for some months, is enjoying a visit today from her four brothers, of Mexico, Mo. The party arrived by automobile Saturday and will return to their homes tomorrow. The visitors are Charles S. Kehl, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Kehl and two children, Randolph Kehl and Albert Kehl.

C. E. McVay, who has been in Woodson assisting in the series of revival meetings at the Christian church left Saturday morning for Elliott, Iowa, where he will be engaged for three weeks in a similar campaign. Later he will go to a point in West Virginia to assist in a revival series. Mr. McVay's work contributed in no small way to the success of the meetings in Woodson.

JEALOUSY IS THE CAUSE OF THREE DEATHS

Kills Lawyer and Mother-in-Law and Then Takes Own Life

(By The Associated Press)
ARCADIA, Florida, Oct. 1.—C. L. Clark, 30 years old, a railroad employe, crazed with jealousy over domestic trouble, ran amuck here today and shot and killed his mother-in-law, Mrs. Blunt; James A. Timberlake, a prominent lawyer, wounded his wife and then killed himself.

According to C. L. Burnett, deputy sheriff, Clark entered the lawyer's office who was counsel for Mrs. Clark in a pending divorce suit and started a quarrel. The lawyer jumped thru a window but two bullets struck him and he fell in the street, dying almost instantly. Clark turned on J. L. Robbins, Timberlake's partner, but his bullet went wild. Clark then went to a hotel where he found his mother-in-law and opened fire on her. Two bullets took effect and Mrs. Blunt died a few hours later.

Clark then went to an adjoining room and fired at his wife. She fell to the floor. He picked her up, according to the deputy sheriff, and threw her from a window. Mrs. Clark was not seriously hurt, the bullet entering her foot. Clark then killed himself.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE HELD BUSINESS SESSION

Farm Bureau Affairs Discussed at Meeting Held Saturday—Opposed to Telephone Rate Increases.

The executive committee of the Morgan county farm bureau held a business session Saturday morning, when routine business was considered along with several other matters of interest. A resolution was adopted voicing the opposition of the committee to any increase in telephone rates. This action was in line with statements made by attorneys for the three farm bureaus and at the recent hearing in Springfield.

It is the purpose to make some revision of the constitution and a committee was appointed to investigate this matter and report, including O. A. Rohrer, W. H. Crum and C. L. Hawker.

H. J. Rucker, assistant county agent, made a report which was approved. Mr. Rucker included also some suggestions for work during the remainder of the fiscal year.

Members of the executive committee present were: Charles S. Black, H. E. Kitzer, L. A. Reed, C. L. Hawker, Charles Gibson, W. H. Crum and O. A. Rohrer.

COMMITTEE TO CONSIDER PROBLEMS OF LAND

Secretary Wallace Names Five Scientists to Give Thought to Whole Question of Land Utilization.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 1.—Appointment of a committee of five scientists of the Department of Agriculture to consider the entire problem of land utilization, especially with respect to the country's future requirements, was announced today by Secretary Wallace.

In appointing the committee Secretary Wallace suggested that, as the basis of the work to be undertaken, careful consideration should be devoted to the country's present crop production, home consumption and foreign demand, relating the land now under cultivation to present and near-future demands. It seems to the Secretary that this study should be followed by a more careful survey and classification than has yet been made of lands which can be brought under cultivation in the future, and the conditions necessary to make it profitable under the plow.

The suggested survey would include the arid lands of the West suitable for irrigation, swamp lands which can be reclaimed by drainage, and the cut-over timber lands of the various sections. In studying the cut-over lands consideration will be given to their possibilities both for cultivation and for reforestation.

Personnel of Committee
The personnel of the committee of five is as follows:
Dr. L. C. Gray, Agricultural Economist, Office of Farm Management and Farm Economics, Chairman.
C. V. Piper, Agrostologist in Charge, Forage Crop Investigations, Bureau of Plant Industry.
Dr. G. M. Rommel, chief, Animal Husbandry Division, Bureau of Animal Industry.
C. F. Marbut, Scientist in Charge, Soil Survey Investigations, Bureau of Soils.
E. E. Carter, Assistant Forester, Forest Service.

At the present time a little less than half the total national area is in farms, and only about one-quarter of the total area is improved land. Many persons, deceived by these facts, assume that there is an unlimited reserve supply of farm land. Such is not the case, however; by far the greater part of the 1,000,000,000 acres not yet in farms probably can never be used for the growing of crops and that part of the reserve land which may be regarded as potential farm land can be brought into use only at heavy expense for clearing, drainage, irrigation, or fertilization.

Improved Acreage Decreases.
Population increases; land area does not. The acreage of improved farm land per capita, for instance, has declined at an ever-increasing rate since 1880. By 1950 the total population, at a normal rate of growth, probably will be about 150,000,000. This would require an addition of 243,000,000 acres of improved land if the present per capita acreage of improved land is to be maintained.

This situation presents the national problem of how best to use drainable, irrigable, cut-over, and lands of inferior quality that heretofore have been rejected as unsuitable—whether they should be brought under the plow or reserved temporarily or permanently for forests or grazing.

The rate of expansion of our national area also is an important factor for consideration. Despite the impending demand for a large expansion of the land basis of American agriculture, there are many reasons why we should consider most carefully before encouraging any considerable expansion of land under cultivation during, say, the next three years. The shrinkage of agricultural imports into this country, and the present depression in developed agricultural areas raise a serious question as to the wisdom of an immediate policy of stimulating the expansion of farm acreage.

DISCUSSED ROAD CONDITIONS IN TWO COUNTIES

Mr. Conlee, superintendent of highways of Macoupin county, with other officials of the county, was here Saturday in conference with the Morgan county commissioners and L. V. Baldwin, superintendent of highways. The matters discussed related to the care of roads and bridges in the south part of Morgan county and the north part of Macoupin. There are some bridges on the county line which are difficult to maintain and the purpose of the conference was to give due consideration to these bridges and other subjects.

LEAVE FOR NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Potter are to leave tomorrow for their new home at Dundee and will make the journey by automobile. As recently mentioned, Mr. Potter is taking the management of a large dairy farm in that locality. He has recently sold his residence property on South Diamond street to E. C. Roach. The house is modern in every way and will make Mr. Roach and family a very desirable home.

PRICE CUTTING WAR

Some of the residents of Chapin have been getting the benefit of a gas price war in Cass county. A Chapin precinct man said yesterday that gasoline was being hauled by truck from Beardstown and sold in wholesale way at 12 1/2 cents a gallon. This is 7 or 8 cents below the retail price. It is said that the price slashing campaign has been on in Cass county for several months past.

STRIKERS MAY OCCUPY SHIP YARDS AT TRIEST

Men Issue 24 Hour Ultimatum to the Ship Builders

(By The Associated Press)
TRIEST, Italy, Oct. 1.—Threat that the shipyards here will be occupied by striking shipyard workers tonight and the militant and aggressive attitude of the strikers, who are controlled completely by communists, made the situation caused by the general strike to appear increasingly dangerous today. The strikers issued an ultimatum to the shipbuilders that if their demands were not granted within 42 hours they would change their methods of fighting.

Troops patrolled the streets this afternoon armed with machine guns while reserves were ready for developments. The strikers have issued a manifesto calling the strike a "defense of our daily bread."

The manifesto enumerates the strikers' complaints, which mainly concern the proposed reduction in wages which caused the strike. The strike now has become almost completely general having extended to the dock workers, the bakers and most of the public utilities. The railwaymen are refusing to join in the movement and are giving the strikers only their moral support.

THREE ARTISTS TO APPEAR IN CONCERT

Vera Barstow, Violinist, With Amy Ellerton and Calvin Cox Soloists Will Be Held Here Next Wednesday.

Brady Bros. will present Miss Vera Barstow, violinist, Miss Amy Ellerton, contralto and Mrs. Calvin Cox, tenor, in a recital at Northminster church on Wednesday evening October 5th at 8:15.

Miss Ellerton's voice is of rare purity and flexibility. With such an organ and the thoro training which she has had in this country and abroad it is not astonishing that she is receiving the universal approval of press and public wherever she appears.

Miss Barstow is one of the leading women violinists of America. Mr. Cox always pleases in his tenor arias and solos and he will prove a valuable third member of the trio.

Brady Bros. are receiving numerous requests for cards of admittance and it is advisable to secure tickets as soon as possible as seats are limited.

TWO FIRE ALARMS SATURDAY NIGHT

The fire department responded to two fire alarms Saturday. The first was at 8 o'clock to property at 1202 South East street, occupied by Joseph Hembrough. Upon arrival there was no sign of fire and Mr. Hembrough told the firemen that he knew nothing about any fire.

At 11:50 the department made a run to the old Dr. H. K. Jones property at 505 West College avenue occupied by Allan Jacobs. Some time passing discovered the barn in the rear of the residence afire.

The department had been called to the property several days ago when a shed was damaged. The fire had started in a manger and seemed to be of incendiary origin. The blaze was extinguished with the chemical with but little damage.

LETTER FROM CIVIL WAR VETERAN
Ralph Crabtree, in looking over some old letters recently was interested in finding one written by his grandfather, Hiram Crabtree, Feb. 5, 1863. His grandfather was a member of the 129th Illinois Infantry and wrote from Buck Lodge, Tenn. The letter was written on army stationery and the so many years have passed it is very legible.

References are made to a number of the writer's comrades and then he tells about the bad weather in Tennessee. He said it began to rain on January 13 and with the exception of two or three days that rain or snow fell every day for three weeks. The ground was muddy and very bad for the movement of troops.

HIGH SCHOOL TO HAVE LOTS OF MUSIC
The high school has several musical organizations being formed and progress along these lines has been rapid. Miss Hopper has two glee clubs in the course of construction, one for the boys and the other for the girls. She expects to have sixteen in each club.

A high school band is being formed with Paul Bolman in charge, and it is expected that a band will be a fact within a short time. There are many boys in the high school who play instruments of one kind or another and everything possible is being done to get them together into a real band.

The organization which has made the most progress however, is the high school orchestra. An orchestra of about twenty-five pieces has been practicing for some time and will make its debut at an assembly in the near future.

A Fountain Pen and A Box of Paper

A fountain pen is important as a writing medium, but yet rather useless if there isn't anything to write upon. So a fountain pen and a box of stationery go together. We are offering some unusually fine stationery, allowing excellent opportunity for choice as to newest and most effective in color and cut. In fountain pens we have the standard American brands known the country over for quality.

MAKES FAIR REPORT TO ASSOCIATION

Secretary Rucker Gives Figures on Attendance and Finances—Show Met All Expectations.

H. J. Rucker, secretary of the Morgan County Fair association, yesterday submitted to the association report of the fair which was given Sept. 6, 7, and 8. This report shows that the fair was a financial success and that it in every way met the expectations of the managers.

There were 1122 displays and premiums amounting to $1266.50 were paid. The gate receipts were $1705.56 and other sums collected were $442.10; exhibitors' tickets, entry fees and stall rent, $706.14; catalog advertising $1257; 248 memberships totaling 2,480, making the total of cash receipts $6590.70.

The total disbursements were $5,009.15, leaving a cash balance of $1,581.55. The details of expenditures were premiums $1,266.50; permanent equipment $525.98; music and other attractions 395 other expenditures, including labor, rental, tents, etc. $2,821.67. In concluding his report Mr. Rucker said:

Co-operation Made Success.
"As a certain amount of premium money is paid by the State Department of Agriculture it will be noted that we include the money still on permanent improvements as not running expenses for the current year and if we get the percentage from the State, which is usually paid, the Morgan County Fair this year not only paid all current expenses for the year, but shows a net profit of approximately $369.00. In other words the Morgan County Breeders Fair has still the 248 memberships to start the Morgan County Fair for next year."

"The success of this fair has been due to the co-operation which everyone, interested in its success, has given."

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Hubam Sweet Clover—This spring we sent samples of this annual sweet clover to twenty-eight Morgan county farmers. We are now asking them for a sample provided they were successful in growing it. Edwin Eckhoff of Chapin thinks this new variety has such possibilities that he is seriously considering sowing 15 acres this coming spring.

12 Year Old Sow—Bert Way at his sale yesterday drove into the ring a twelve year old sow from which he said he had sold over $5000 worth of breeding stock. Four of her pigs were sold at satisfactory prices following the story.

Sec. Wallace Asks for Report on Farm Labor Conditions—Dr. Geo. N. Coffey, State Leader of county agents, asked us to report the number of unemployed farm laborers. We estimated that 15 per cent were unemployed and that 90 per cent of the usual number were employed.

Soybean News—R. E. Fox of Chapin reports very satisfactory results from this brown variety Ohio 0935 soybeans when they are planted in corn. He thinks that they surpass other varieties he has tried in the number of pods per plant. E. B. Hemmrich states that he harvested 50 loads of soybean hay from 50 acres. Thirty of these were put in the barn, while the rest were stacked in the field. Fred Moeller of Orleans has a corn field that shows the effect to the row of the previous crop of soybeans. He thinks the corn is a third better where soybeans were grown last year. Next year Mr. Moeller expects to sow 50 acres of soybeans.

An oyster supper will be given by Ladies Aid of the M. E. church at Merritt, Oct. 5, 1921.

FIRE PREVENTION DAY PROCLAMATION

October 9 has been designated as fire prevention day and the governor of this state has called upon all citizens to give due attention to a fire prevention program during the week.

The pastors of the churches have been urged to call attention to the losses and waste that come from fire, and citizens are urged to plan for exercises in the schools and for such programs in theaters, hospitals, factories and stores that due emphasis may be laid upon this important subject of fire prevention.

October 9 is the 50th anniversary of the great Chicago fire, which with its loss of $298,000,000 was the result of carelessness.

As mayor of the city of Jacksonville I hereby request all citizens to unite with the people of the Illinois cities in commemorating the anniversary of Chicago's fire by spreading abroad such information that there may be a lessening of the great losses by fire which annually visit the state.

E. E. Crabtree, Mayor.

MANCHESTER S. S. CLASS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Charles Leitze is Hostess to Members of Her S. S. Class—High School Girls Enjoy Hike—Other News From Manchester.

Manchester, Oct. 1.—Mrs. Charles Leitze entertained the members of her Sunday school class, the Wide Awakes, Friday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. D. Chapman. The affair was the result of a contest which has been waging between two groups of the class, the winners being the guests of the losers. Games and contests were enjoyed during the evening and a number of musical numbers added much to the pleasure of the occasion. Refreshments of sandwiches, salad, pickles, ice cream and wafers were served.

Six of the high school girls, members of the "Hike" club, made a 1-1/2 mile hike into the country Saturday evening. Arrived at a suitable spot they cooked and ate their supper and later returned to the city. The girls were chaperoned by Misses Helen Kinison and Louise Dawson, members of the faculty.

Mrs. N. H. Langford and daughter Vivian of Tacoma, Wash., arrived Saturday for a visit with the former's cousin, Mrs. R. C. Curtis.

L. C. Funk was a St. Louis visitor Thursday.

Miss Euphemia Jasper of Springfield is visiting Miss Nellie Cummings.

Miss Lucy Duncan of Jacksonville is spending the week end at the home of her brother, John Duncan and family.

Frank Blackburn is critically ill at his home east of town and little hope is entertained for his recovery.

Mrs. William Farrington of Jacksonville spent Friday with Mrs. Charles Leitze. Mr. Farrington has the contract for the construction of a fine modern bungalow which Mr. and Mrs. Leitze will occupy in the near future.

IN BUSINESS THRU MANY YEARS

William P. Conklin of Grand Rapids, Mich., is in the city for a visit with his brother, O. F. Conklin of Mound avenue. The brothers are associated in the ownership of the Conklin farms in this county. The Conklin family were born at the family home in the Lake Ontario region near Black River Bay. A few years later the family moved to Michigan, where the mother died when Oscar and William were about 14 years of age.

Both of the lads were ambitious for education and surmounting difficulties, attended the schools available in Grand Rapids. As young men the two brothers formed a partnership in a mercantile business, opening their store at Ravenna, Michigan. This was the beginning of a successful business career for both.

In addition to the usual activity of this store within a few years the Conklin brothers made investments in real estate and then began to handle logs and lumber. For more than thirty years this partnership continued, the business developing along several lines. In the after years the two brothers continued to make joint investments, and altho both have now traveled a good many miles along the highway of life their business sagacity continues. They have the reputation of having dealt fairly with all men and at the same time have accumulated fortunes that have given them recognition in the business world.

SOLD ADDITIONAL STOCK

Messrs. Way & Fairbank, who recently conducted a sale of pure-bred Poland Chinas, disposed of a number of animals after those listed had been sold. In fact, there was a customer present for every animal that could be spared from the herd. Four suckling pigs brought good prices, the two males $15 each and the two females $30 each. They are to be kept with the sow an additional two weeks before being delivered to the purchasers.

Mr. Way is devoting more attention to his work as auctioneer this year than has been true for some time. October 6 he will be the auctioneer at the sale of Latham & Gardner at Ashland; Oct. 12 he will officiate at the Weghenkie & Sons sale at Hamilton. Other days he has are Oct. 9, Toward French, New Lenox; Oct. 20, Hirsch Bros, Mankeno; Oct. 22, Adam Ashbraker, Mt. Sterling.

YANKEES WIN FIRST AMERICAN PENNANT

Split Double Header While Clevegins Tries Out Every Man on Roster.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—New York won its first American League championship today, defeating the Philadelphia Athletics in a double header 5 to 3 and 7 to 6. The second game went 11 innings. It was only necessary for New York to win one game to capture the pennant.

Carl Mays won the first game for New York, his twenty-seventh victory of the season. Mays, however, was hit hard at times, Philadelphia getting five hits in the fourth inning, including two triples and a double.

Sullivan, a Three I League graduate pitched against Mays and made a good showing. Wild throws behind him handicapped his efforts.

The second game was a burlesque in which Huggins used all his extra players. Ruth shifted from left field to first base as pitcher. Philadelphia tied the score by scoring six runs on Ruth in the eighth inning, but New York won in the eleventh on Rogers' double and Mitchell's single.

Champion Batter
Is Still In Doubt

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—The champion batter of American League may not be known until the last game of the season has been played this season. The race has settled down to a nip and tuck battle between Ty Cobb, pilot of the Detroit Tigers and his hard hitting outfielder, Harry Heilmann, Babe Ruth is the dark horse for premier honors.

The Detroit sluggers, tied a week ago, are separated by one point, according to the averages released today and which include games of Wednesday. Heilmann is hitting .391 while his boss has a mark of .390, the former having participated in more games than the Georgia peach. Ruth is trailing the pair with an average of .380, a gain over his mark of a week ago of two points. Heilmann dropped three points while Cobb lost four. George Sisler, the St.
Louis star, suffered a slight falling off in his stick work, but retains fourth place with .373, while Tris Speaker, manager of the world's champions is holding fifth place with .358, a loss of eight points.

Ruth cracked out two home runs since the last compilation of averages and now has a season's record of 58. The big Yankee slugger is far in the lead as a run getter, having counted 176 times while his 201 hits have given him a total of 449 bases. Besides his circuit drives, Babe has slugged out 44 doubles and 15 triples.

Sisler kept pace with S. Harris, of Washington for the stolen base honors. Each added one to his string, but the St. Louis player is showing the way with 28 thefts,
one in front of his rival.

Other leading batters for 100
or more games:

Tobin, St. Louis .352; Jacobson, St. Louis .348; Williams, St.
Louis .345; E. Collins, Chicago
.339; Veach, Detroit .336; Strunk
Chicago .336.

Rogers Hornsby, of St. Louis, is making a strong bid to be the first hitter to finish the National League season with an average above the 400 mark since the days of Delehanty, who while with Philadelphia in 1899 topped the batters with an average of .408.
If the St. Louis star, who is hitting .406, according to averages released today and which include Wednesday's games, maintains his pace, he will enter the National League hall of fame with such men as Barnes, Chicago, who hit
.403 in 1876; Cap Anson, Chicago who finished in 1879 with .407;
Stenzel, Pittsburgh, who averaged
.409 in 1894; Duffy, Boston, with
.438 in 1894; Burkett of Cleveland who held the leadership in 1895 and 1896, with averages of .438 and .419, respectively, and Willie Keeler, who was a member of the Baltimore club in 1897 had a mark of .417.

Hornsby is leading the run
getters with 128 runs and his 232 hits have given him a total of 637 bases. His hits include 41 doubles, 18 triples and 20 homers, the latter mark being three behind George Kelly, of the New York Giants, who is leading the Lone run hitters with 23 circuit
blows.

Frank Frisch of the Giants retained his lead as the best base stealer, despite the fact that he failed to add to his total of 47 of a week ago.

Ed Roush of Cincinnati has made a great spurt in his hitting and has moved up to second place where he is trailing Hornsby with an average of .354, while Mc-Henry of St. Louis and Cruise of Boston have tied for third place with .349.

Other leading batters for 100 or more games:

Fournier, St. Louis .348; Men-sel, New York .343; Frisch, New York .339; J. Smith, St. Louis,
.333; Bigbee, Pittsburgh .325;
Johnston, Brooklyn .324.

Jay Kille of Louisville, appears to have a safe hold on the batting honors of the American association as averages released today which include games of Wednesday show him hitting .383. He also out in front for a total base honors with 408 bases, acquired on 273 hits, which include 42 doubles, 15 triples and 21 home runs.
The real race is on for second place honors between Reb Russell of Minneapolis who is hitting .363, Art Butler of Kansas City with
.365 and Bunney Brief, another
Kansas City slugger with .363.
Jim Thorpe of Toledo is on the heels of the trio with .360.

A Brief who has made forty home runs has a wide margin over his nearest rival, Reb Russell, for the circuit drive honors, the Minneapolis player having smashed out 31. Brief also is the best run getter in the league, having scored 164 times. His nearest rival in this department is Good, a teammate who counted 162 times.

Baird of Indianapolis added
four bases to his string of stolen bases during the past week and is showing the way to the base stealers with 71 thefts.

Other leading batters for 100
or more games:

Acost, Louisville .351; Good,
Kansas City .350; Lear, Milwaukee .350; Fisher, Minneapolis .349;
Schinner, Indianapolis .345;

PITTSFIELD WON
FROM JACKSONVILLE

Pike County Aggregation Takes Locals Into Camp by Score of 21 to 7—Jacksonville Unable to Stop Koeppling.

Jacksonville High was defeated by Pittsfield at Pittsfield yesterday afternoon by a score of 21 to 7.

While the locals layed a fair game they did not do as well as they did at Hannibal a week ago
when they held the strong Hannibal team to a 14 to 0 score.

The chief cause of the locals
defeat was inability to stop Koeppling, one of Pittsfield's star backfield men. Koeppling is not so fast but he is heavy and a strong runner and the Jacksonville tacklers were unable to bring him down.

Pittsfield victoriously won the game in the first half as in the second half and especially in the last quarter Jacksonville held
when they held the strong Hannibal team to a 14 to 0 score.
Pittsfield's gains were made mainly by runs.

Jacksonville opened up with a passing game in the second half and had good luck with it completing six out of eight passes. It was in this manner they worked the ball within striking distance of the goal and Hopper was sent over for the only touchdown made by Jacksonville. Hunt kicked the goal. Had Jacksonville played an open game from the first they might have had a chance of winning.

For the locals Hopper and Hunt did good work on the offense while the Jacksonville line held well. The locals make their first home bow next Saturday
when Altan high comes here.
Scottville beat the seconds 55

NEW YORK GIANTS IS OLD BALL TEAM

Came Into Being in 1883. When John B. Day Financed the Club — James Mutrie Was Manager.

(By The Associated Press)

New York, Oct. 1.—The New York National League Baseball club came into being in 1883, with John B. Day, a patron of the game financing the project. James Mutrie, whose name still lives as the "Father of the Giants" induced Day to back the club after the game had been tried on the Polo Grounds, then on Fifth Avenue.

Mutrie managed the club, which was admitted to the National League the same year it was organized. The New York team took the place of the Troy team which had been dropped out of the League and used the best of the Troy players, among them "Buck" Ewing, Mickey Welch, Roger Connor, Ed Haskins and Pat Gillespie. All of them were large in stature and during one game Mutrie watched his men in action and remarked: "They are Giants in action as well as stature." The name "Giants" has stuck ever since.

Cornelius Van Cott became president of the club in 1893. Day having sold his interests. Mutrie was deposed, broken hearted, and the team finished fifth in 1894. John W. Ward became manager, and second the following season. In 1896, the late Andrew Freedman purchased the controlling interest in the club and was president for eight years. With the exception of 1897, when the team finished third it was always a trailer under Freedman. Eleven managers had the Giants under Freedman. The list includes George Davis, Jack Doyle, Harvey Watkins, Arthur Irwin, Bill Joyce, Capt. A. C. Anson, John B. Day, Fred Hoey, Buck Ewing, George Smith and Horace Fogel.

Freedman finally was induced to give John McGraw a chance in the managerial office. John T. Brush purchased the team in 1903 and placed McGraw in control. The team jumped almost instantly into popularity with the public and has since proven one of the best financial investments in the National League.

Under Day and Mutrie the Giants finished first in 1888 and 1889. The team finished second in 1903, the 21st year of its life and the initial season of McGraw's management. In 1904, they won the pennant but refused to play the Boston Americans for the World's Championship. The following year, when the newly formed National Commission made the world's series a mandatory contest between pennant winning teams of the National and American Leagues, the Giants won the title by defeating the Philadelphia Athletics, four games to one.

In 1911, Harry Hemsstead succeeded his father-in-law, John T. Brush, as head of the club. McGraw was given a new contract by Hemsstead in 1917 and acquired stock in the club. In January, 1919, Charles A. Stoneham, John McGraw and Francis McQuade purchased the controlling stock from the Brush estate. Stoneham now is president.

OMER PROMINENT IN COLLEGE ATHLETICS

Carthage Coach Was for a Number of Years at Northwestern—Directed Athletics at Camp Grant During War.

CARTHAGE, Ill.—(By A. P.)—This fall brings back to Illinois gridiron one of the best known of its past football coaches, Lewis Omer, who for a number of years developed the Purple eleven at Northwestern University. He left Evanston at the beginning of the war to become athletic officer at Camp Grant and captain in the U. S. army, 1918-19, and has returned to his home state as football coach and athletic director at Carthage college.

Coach Omer's work at Carthage college is a combination of teaching mathematics and coaching all athletic teams.

Omer is a graduate of the University of Illinois, and after graduating coached Oak Park High school teams for seven years. From there he went to Northwestern University and from 1913-1918 was athletic director, being in absentia the last year 1917.

During the war, he first represented the Postek commission as a civilian director, and in 1918 was commissioned captain and acted as athletic director and coach of the Camp Grant teams.

He considers the best team he ever handled was the baseball team which defeated the Great Lakes three games in the summer of 1918. It is probable that no greater aggregation of nonsalaried players was ever gotten together. Among some of the brighter lights were Harold Carlson, now on the Pittsburgh team, John Sullivan, pitcher for the White Sox, Ed Sweeney, and other professional players.

After discharge from the army Captain Omer farmed one year, then was superintendent of schools in Eden, Idaho. While there he worked as an official in most of the big games of the state, refereeing the University of Utah-University of Idaho football game. He also worked in two final games of the high school state championship where Twin Falls won the title, and also refereed the state basketball championship series.

Coach Omer has an enthusiastic squad of thirty men out with the avowed intention of bringing Carthage athletics up to the same plane as those of the other colleges of western Illinois.

The woman led a storekeeper to Drach, who turned him over to the police, the woman making her escape in the crowds. Drach evidently is an I. W. W. organizer as well as a check forger, having numerous checks for amounts ranging from two hundred to five thousand dollars among his possessions. A large number of his associates were also captured.

The officials of the tournament have made special arrangements for the morning contest which will begin promptly at 9 o'clock, rain or shine. The afternoon round will start promptly at 2 o'clock. HIGHWAY MAN HERE

The Macoupin County Superintendent of Highways, Conlee, was in the city yesterday conferring with the local board of highways commissioners. The discussion was about the state aid roads, particularly those near Noronville. It was stated that no definite action has been taken in regard to the future management of the roads in the southern part of the county. There has been considerable controversy over the upkeep of these roads and a speedy settlement of the question between the officials of the two counties is being striven for.

GREENE COUNTY JERSEY CALF BREEDERS MFT

Conference Held at Hull Jersey Farm Friday Afternoon—Mrs. E. J. Hume Given Surprise—Other White Hall News.

White Hall, Oct. 1.—A conference of Jersey calf breeders was held at Hull Jersey Farm Friday afternoon in connection with a two weeks' campaign of such meetings in Illinois which closed at Tallula Saturday. The purpose of these meetings is to induce the Jersey breeders of the respective communities to improve their cattle and marketing conditions, and organize local units for promoting the breed, for publicity and other activities, including exhibits at fairs and calf clubs and participation in testing associations.

R. D. Cahan of Indianapolis, field man of the Tri-state Jersey Cattle Association, representing Illinois, Ohio and Indiana, commented on the Hull herd in the course of his remarks, saying that this is the only St. Maves family in Illinois, and that they are very scarce in this part of the country. Mr. Hull has twenty-six Jerseys in his herd, one of which, Sheridan Star, holds the remarkable record of 596 pounds of butterfat or 762 pounds of butter for one year, averaging over 1,000 pounds of milk per month and testing 4.8 per cent. Five cows now on test are destined to go to the peak in milk production.

Mr. Hull established this Jersey farm on his return from Oregon only a few years ago, where he acquired his foundation herd. He purchased the Jackson Marshall place, lying immediately outside the north limits of the city, and has brought into use his earlier training at the University of Illinois. He recently completed a cow barn that will accommodate twenty-four head, 32x48 feet, with a 65-ton silo attached. He remarked that his new silage is the best quality he has ever put up.

White Hall is a Holstein community, as is Illinois as a state, and the place of Jersey cattle is well down the scale in numbers, yet there is great inspiration to be found here for the Jersey breed. Mr. Hull, although a young man, easily takes leadership, but Gregory Farm has for years experimented with Jersey cattle with entire satisfaction, although the cattle business has never been commercialized at this great breeding establishment.

The conference was not attended from distant neighborhoods on account of the rain the night before, but Morton E. Thomas brought an auto load from Carrollton. The visitors were treated in the height of hospitality by Mr. and Mrs. Hull.

PRO FOOTBALL TO BE WELL ORGANIZED

Will Be Placed on Basis Similar to Organized Baseball—Four Hundred Contracts Signed So Far.

By Associated Press

Columbus, O., Oct. 1.—Professional football is to be placed on a basis similar to that of organized baseball, according to plans of the American Professional Football association. Headquarters of the organization are located here.

A comprehensive code of rules, including a strict prohibitory clause against the playing of men who are enrolled at any college or university, has been established, according to Joseph F. Carr, president, and more than 400 contracts have been signed by former university stars who will play on the nineteen teams which are members of the association.

Carr, who is a former official in several minor baseball leagues in Ohio and Pennsylvania, says that organization and administrative plans of the professional baseball leagues will be followed out as closely as possible.

Every player who participates in games played by association teams must be under a contract similar to that of major league baseball players, Carr says, and all contests will be carefully regulated and conducted only by officials sanctioned by the association.

Starting last week, the teams in the organization began elimination contests on a schedule arranged among themselves, and after Thanksgiving a series to establish the championship will be played.

The association is made up of teams in the following cities: Rochester, Buffalo, and Towanda, N. Y.; New Haven, Conn.; Canton, Akron, Cleveland, Dayton, Columbus and Toledo, Ohio; Hammond and Evansville, Ind.; Detroit, Mich.; Chicago, Decatur and Rock Island, Ill.; Louisville, Ky.; Green Bay Wis., and Minneapolis, Minn.

A WONDERFUL PICTURE

"Johnny Ring and the Captain's Sword," a five reel picture by the celebrated Philadelphia Divine, Russell Conwell, will be shown at Westminster church Sunday night. All invited. A collection will be taken.

WISCONSIN WON FROM LAWRENCE

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 1.—Wisconsin opened its football season today with a 28 to 6 victory over Lawrence college in a game that was marked by the brilliant playing of the Badger backfield. The Cardinal scoring machine was slowed up at times by ragged work of the lineman who could seldom open holes in the Lawrence forward wall.

EX-SOLDIERS GUESTS OF SERVICE STAR LEGION

Men From Vocational Training
Unit Enjoyed Program and Luncheon.

The Service Star Legion gave entertainment and luncheon at the American Legion hall Saturday afternoon in honor of the ex-service men who are taking vocational training at Jacksonville State hospital. Miss Lorine Dewese sang a number of selections with Miss Constance Finch as her accompanist. An orchestra from the high school also furnished music and this program was one which the ex-service men thoroughly enjoyed. The orchestra included Riley Alkire, Percy Correa, W. Hoagland and H. Campbell. Some of the young men from the hospital played several selections themselves and a short time was spent in dancing. At the luncheon hour sandwiches, pickles, coffee, ice cream and cigarettes were served.

No one who saw the group of former soldiers could doubt that they appreciated the entertainment and luncheon and that the afternoon was one of real pleasure for them. The members of the Service Star legion felt amply rewarded for their efforts in arranging this entertainment.

The committee from the Service Star legion in charge of this very successful event included Mrs. Virgil Edwards, chairman; Mrs. L. P. Allcott, Mrs. J. A. Paschall, Mrs. R. Shoemaker, Mrs. A. S. Armstrong, Mrs. Charles Keefe, Mrs. E. W. Bland, Mrs. H. D. Cowgill, Mrs. Merwin Ator, Mrs. R. W. Dodsworth, Mrs. Otto Eckels, Mrs. A. J. Jones, Mrs. H. B. Jaeger, Mrs. G. W. Randle and Mrs. A. L. Adams.

There were fifty of the ex-service men present and with them were two of the vocational instructors, Director Ledgerwood and two of his assistants.

MISS VIOLA STEVENS HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Is Nearly Run Down By Runaway Horse in North Main Street—Animal Belonged to Cook, the Grocer.

Miss Viola Stevens of West Lafayette avenue narrowly escaped being seriously injured when a horse belonging to Cook's grocery store ran away. The wagon was backed against the curb in front of the store when the horse took a sudden notion to run away. The animal ran directly across the street scattering several spectators in front of Cherry's Service station, and then ran straight down the sidewalk on North Main street just barely missing Miss Stevens who was walking in front of the blacksmith shop on the corner of Main and North streets. She turned just in time to see the horse coming and escaped being hit by a few inches. Bystanders say that it is remarkable that she was not trampled to death by the horse.

The runaway hit an old surrey in front of the shop there, breaking the shafts from the wagon, and then ran amuck among the buggies in front of Ogle's barn where it was finally caught. The horse steered a straight course down the sidewalk and out of all the chances for damage to result very little was done. It is estimated that ten or twelve dollars will pay for all of it.

MEET TUESDAY TO TALK VENUE CHANGE

Chicago Tribune Says Governor Small is Likely to Go to Greene or Macoupin Counties

If the Chicago Tribune is right, Morgan county does not have much chance of securing the trial of Governor Small. Another effort was made Tuesday to bring the lawyers for the prosecution and for Governor Small to agree on the court where the trial is to be had. The Tribune states that both Governor Small and State's Attorney Mortimer of Sangamon county are opposed to bringing the trial to Morgan county.

This is the Tribune's statement: "Failure of counsel for Governor Small to agree with State's Attorney Mortimer of Sangamon county as to which county a change of venue is to be taken is expected to force the trial of the governor in either Greene or Macoupin county."

"Another effort will be made Tuesday to reach an agreement between the lawyers, but it is not expected to be successful. The question of which county the trial will take place in will then depend upon which of the Circuit judges in the Sangamon county district disposes of the motion."

"If Judge Norman L. Jones of Carrollton does so it is expected to be assigned to Macoupin county, from which Judge Frank W. Burton of the Sangamon county circuit comes. If Judge Burton passes on the motion he is expected to send it to Judge Jones' court, Greene. Morgan county is also in the circuit, but both Governor Small and State's Attorney Mortimer are opposed to trial there."

TUBERCULOSIS DIRECTORS MET

Meeting Was Held in Ayers Bank Building Saturday Afternoon—Many Organizations Will Furnish Rooms in Sanatorium

The board of directors of the Morgan County Tuberculosis Sanatorium met at the Ayers Bank building yesterday afternoon with representatives of the women's organizations of this county present.

After the meeting had been called to order with a prayer, the main discussion during the business session was that concerning the furnishing of the rooms of the sanatorium. Several talks were made on this subject by Dr. Dewey, Mrs. A. L. Adams, and Mrs. Will Scott of Orleans. Rev. T. W. Smith made a motion which was seconded and carried, that the chair appoint two members as a committee, including the chair, to see about the purchasing of furniture. The committee appointed includes Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Adams, and the president of the board, Mr. A. A. Curry. This committee will meet this week.

By request of the chair, Mr. Batz, a former member of the board, made a statement concerning the unfinished work on the buildings. It was found that practically all of the work has been finished and that everything is in readiness to begin furnishing the rooms.

Further discussion regarding the furniture brought the fact that uniform furniture will be used as far as possible but no iron clad rule in this respect has been laid down.

Talk of Drive

The next matter brought before the attention of the meeting was that of a drive on the west side of the sanatorium grounds. A. C. Metcalf of the Park board discussed this matter and the Park board was given permission by the sanatorium trustees to build this drive.

It is generally understood that the different women's organizations will furnish the lower floor and that the men's clubs will furnish the upper floor. This is not a settled plan but is the general idea to be carried out as far as possible.

A list of the organizations that have already pledged to furnish a room in the sanatorium has been secured from Mrs. A. L. Adams as follows: Chapin Woman's Club, Executive Board of the Morgan County Federation of Clubs, Orleans Country Club, Murrayville precinct, Strawn's Crossing Club, Sinclair Woman's Club, Alexander Woman's Club, Morgan County Community Council, Woodson Woman's Club, Woodson Household Science Club, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Russell, and besides the above many other clubs and individuals will probably donate towards furnishing the remaining rooms.

LITCHFIELD MEN

ARE IMPRESSED

Party Who Visited Here Praise
High School Building, Waterworks and Street Repair System.

That the party of Litchfield men who visited the city last week were much impressed with the things they saw is evidenced by the following story from the Litchfield News-Herald:

"Litchfield business men are very much interested in the repair paving system and street improvements now being used in Jacksonville."

"Thursday morning a party consisting of J. F. Coddington and J. A. Henly, representing the downtown improvement association; Glenn Brubaker, Thomas Taylor and J. C. Strehle for the retail merchants association; Alderman Ed Wright, chairman of the street committee, and William Fleming, street commissioner left in automobiles to visit Jacksonville."

"Upon arriving in that city the party were met by Mayor E. E. Crabtree, Street Commissioner White, City Engineer Henderson, Alderman Chapin and Secretary Welch of the business men's association of that city."

"Before investigating the streets the Jacksonville officials were bound to have their guests see the new Jacksonville community high school and water plant."

"Jacksonville has reason to be justly proud of its new $400,000 structure, which is complete in every respect, and to think, said a member of the junketing committee, 'that Litchfield cannot even have a $100,000 community high school. It made some of us feel very small.'"

"After the visit to the high school, the Litchfield party were next shown the new city water system. This plant which has only been recently completed has a capacity of 1,800,000 gallons a day. There is an acreage of 210 acres covered with water. Next to this water supply 200 additional acres are used as a city park."

"Following this inspection the lunch hour having arrived, the Litchfield party were guests at the Peacock Inn at a luncheon of the Kiwanis club.

"Immediately after the luncheon the party now in charge of Street Commissioner White, visited the streets and inspected the paving and street repairing. 'The entire party,' said one of the members, 'were greatly impressed with the excellent paving and the cheap and efficient manner in which it can be laid.'"

"Members of the Litchfield committee feel that a surface paving like that used in Jacksonville could be put on Ryder street, west of State street, for one block for about $300, and that this would be a good block in which to demonstrate this paving repair. Some members claim that it would be practicable to resurface North State street over the rock road and the expense would be comparatively little."

"Members of the committee feel that it is probably too late in the season to do any work on the streets this fall. The business men with the data secured, hope, however, to lay their plans before the city council as they desire to cooperate with that body. 'That if this is done now, and the council decides to try the paving project in Litchfield, it will be possible to start work in the early spring.'"

"We were much pleased with our entertainment in Jacksonville," said Secretary J. C. Strehle, of the merchants' association. "We are especially grateful to Secretary Harold Welch, of the Jacksonville Business Men's association, who arranged the meeting, as well as to Mayor Crabtree, Street Commissioner White, Engineer Henderson Alderman Chapin and others."

"Alderman Chapin is also general manager of the Illinois Steel Bridge Company. Most all the city officials are leading business men, serving for $1 a year."

"The Litchfield party returned last night."

"This is the second committee of business men to visit Jacksonville within the past six months, the first committee to make the trip being the citizens' water committee, all have returned enthusiastic."

Ruel Challiner of the Joy Prairie vicinity was in Jacksonville yesterday.

With Morgan County Poets

The technique of writing verse is no bar to the real poet. If he does not take a positive delight in overcoming such difficulties, he is no poet. Some poets even set themselves more in difficult standards than the age requires, like Robert Bridges in his imitations of classic meters.

And so of Walt Whitman, whose eyes were in the other direction. Nevertheless, the one who dabbles in "free verse" because he thinks the old styles too difficult, or out of date, will never get anywhere with either. The best of our free versifiers have served their apprenticeship in rhyme and reason, and have written at times some beautiful things in the old styles.

The theme of the following poem is an old one, from the time of "Caesar dead and turned to clay," but it is a popular one. And always it is not treated with the frank optimism as it is here.

DUST TO DUST

Softly I tread as I pass to and fro
And give thought to the future's store.
When my soul on its long journey shall go,
My body to earth evermore.

For I cannot know but the brittle clod
That's crushed into dust 'neath my heel
Once may have been a young Indian god,
Who loves and hates as I feel.

While the dull brown brick but yesterday laid
Into the low stoop at my home
May comprise the heart of a primitive maid,
A mere atom of stone-age to me.

After eons have passed I may become
A clod or a mud-dauber's nest,
Or a rare white jewel, glittering, dumb,
That on a fair bosom shall rest.

But what my lot, be it vagrant dust,
Or a slimy weed in the sea,
To endure of earth would seem only just,
For earth has dealt fairly with me.

OIL RESOURCES OF ILLINOIS LIMITED

Oil Men Declare that All Probable Sources Have Been Explored—Banner Oil Year Was 1920 When Ten Million Barrels Were Produced.

By Associated Press.
Lawrenceville, Ill., Oct. 1.—Hopes that the Illinois oil fields might be extended by the discovery of oil in Gallatin county have just been ended with the completion of a well near Shawneetown at a depth of 3,200 feet without finding oil.

Another exploration well near Omaha, a few miles north, is still dry at 1,500 feet and oil men believe that these wells prove that the Illinois fields do not connect with the fields in Kentucky as had been expected. Other exploration wells had been planned near Bosky Dell and Harrisburg but may be abandoned this fall on account of the low price of oil and the high cost of operations.

Oil men and geologists believe that the oil resources of the entire state have now been thoroughly explored and the extent of all the major pools clearly defined. The past two years have seen a large number of "wild cat" or exploration wells completed over and none of them has opened fields of any consequence. With the data from these wells and from several that were drilled into the deep Trenton Rock formations, geologists think that they have sufficient evidence today to outline all the main pools and that only a few small pockets remain undiscovered similar to the Waterloo pool, near East St. Louis, which was found last spring and which has proven to be less than 100 acres in extent.

For the past six months Illinois oil fields have suffered from an acute depression following the phenomenal fall in the price of crude oil. Illinois oil which was selling a year ago for a few cents less than $4.00 per bbl., has been selling for $1.27 per bbl. since the middle of the year. Many oil men claim that this price is below the cost of production except on the most productive leases and the result has been almost a complete stoppage of activity with no new wells being drilled even in the proven territory of Lawrence and Crawford counties where many "incomplete wells" remain to be completed.

The banner year of Illinois' oil production was 1920, when the state produced more than 10,000,000 bbls., which sold for more than $40,000,000. This year the state will probably produce close to 9,000,000 bbls., but its value at the low price will be less than $15,000,000. The period of greatest production was reached eight or nine years ago when the state produced annually about 19,000,000 bbls., worth at that time about $1.00 per bbl. Most of the wells in Illinois are holding up their production extraordinarily well, decreasing less than 10 per year. Many of the wells in Lawrence county, where oil is found in five different strata, are believed to be as long lived as wells in Pennsylvania.

A COMMUNICATION

Editor Journal:
Constant complaints are heard of the amount of drinking and drunkenness in Morgan County. The new Illinois prohibition law has "teeth" enough in it to mop up any community where it is enforced.

The failure of the appropriation for the attorney-general's office has thrown the weight of enforcement on the local officers. Quite satisfactory results are being obtained in suppressing the liquor traffic in many counties under the new law, which requires the state's attorneys to vigorously prosecute and require county boards to give the state's attorneys and sheriffs effective assistance.

Since July 1st in Montgomery county the state's attorney, aided by the county board, has secured $2,700 in fines with many cases in addition started and on the way to secure more fines. Jail sentences also are quite common against stubborn offenders.

In Bond county $3,000 in fines have been imposed and collected. In Randolph county $4,500; in Macoupin county $3,500. Many other counties could be mentioned.

In fact, these counties are getting in fines three or four times as much money as it costs to secure the evidence.

The new law is working well and effectively wherever it is used with efficiency by state's attorneys assisted by the county boards.

Morgan county was a pioneer in outlawing the liquor business. Why should it not lead the way in one hundred per cent enforcement of the law?

MUCH BUILDING IN PROGRESS IN BOOTHOUSE

Within the last few months several model residences have been erected and more are under way. SCENIC SPLENDORS

ON NEW HIGHWAY

Construction of Road Out of Elizabethtown Will Let Thru Most Picturesque Scenery in Illinois.

By Associated Press.

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ill.—Construction of a state highway into this out of the way corner of "Egypt" promises to open up a section unrivaled in Illinois for scenic splendors. Highway engineers from the state department who spent several weeks here this summer expect to announce the route for the first hard road into the district within a few weeks.

Elizabethtown has no railroad connection and the river packets still carry most of her visitors. A railroad was built into Hardin county two years ago, but it stopped at Rossville, several miles from the county seat.

This part of "Egypt" stretching across the state along the Ohio river, is a continuation of the Ozark hills of Missouri and Arkansas and the winding roads thru the hills to the north and west are among the most beautiful in the state.

The main road north from Elizabethtown, the Harrisburg pike, passes thru one of the finest hill sections in the state, shaded by deep forests and crossed by scores of hill brooks, which, in time of rain, became raging torrents.

Between Elizabethtown and Karber's Ridge, twelve miles north, there are more than a score of fords on the Harrisburg road, and at on place, growing tired of crossing and recrossing Big Creek time and again, the road builders turned up the creek bed and followed along under water for more than a quarter of a mile. In fair weather the stream is seldom more than ten inches deep, but a heavy rain on the surrounding hills will fill the limestone chasm six feet deep in two hours' time.

The first state road probably will run south from Harrisburg to a point near the Ohio river half way between Elizabethtown and Golconda, with branches running east and west to the two towns.

WHY YOU NEED IRON—

To make you strong and "brainy" and put the power into your blood to overcome disease germs

PRACTICAL ADVICE ON HOW TO DEVELOP GREAT ENERGY AND ENDURANCE

The food you eat contains carbon. When your food is digested it is absorbed into the blood. When the carbon in your food comes in contact with the oxygen carried by the iron in your blood, the carbon and oxygen unite and by so doing they give off tremendous energy, thereby giving you great force, strength and endurance. Without iron your blood carries no oxygen and without oxygen there is nothing to unite with the carbon in your food, so that what you eat does you no good—you do not get any strength from it—it is like putting coal into a stove without a fire. You cannot get any heat unless the coal unites with the fire.

The strongest weapon with which to prevent and overcome colds, pneumonia, kidney trouble, rheumatism, nervous prostration, in fact almost any disease or disease germs is plenty of good rich, pure blood, strength, energy and endurance and the greatest energy carrier in the body is organic iron, not metallic iron which people usually take, but organic iron like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples and like the iron contained in what is known as organic Nuxated Iron, which may be had from almost any druggist.

If you have been taking metallic iron with benefit such is no proof that organic Nuxated Iron will not help you. Nuxated Iron often increases the strength, energy and endurance of weak, nervous run down folks in two weeks time. It is such an extremely valuable product that even the Pope at Rome wrote especially of its merits in a communication to the Pharmacopoeia Normale. It has been used and highly recommended by former United States Senators, Members of Congress, Judges of U. S. Courts, many physicians and prominent men.

Over 4,000,000 people are now using it annually. Satisfactory results are guaranteed. The manufacturers will refund your money. Sold by all druggists in tablet form only.—Adv.

THIS SET OF ELEGANT ALUMINUM WARE FREE

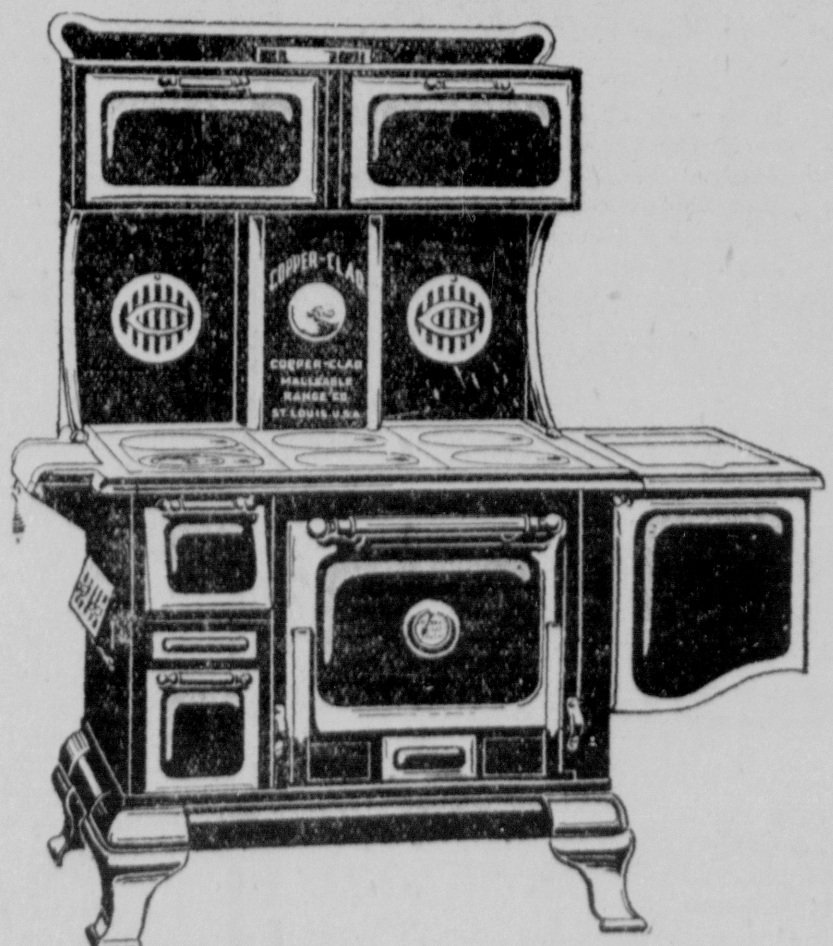

"Free" means that this ware does not cost Copper-Clad buyers a single penny. It is a reward for buying while the Crank is here and is offered by him to justify you in attending this sale.

This ware is very substantial and just the kind that you would select if buying for your own use. The 7-in-1 convertible cooker takes the place of seven different vessels, as shown by figures 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7. You can use this utensil in some form every day.

Free to Copper-Clad buyers during this sale. Come—See the Asbestos Sweat.

COPPER-CLAD WEEK--This Week October 3rd to 8th

This Copper-Clad Idea is "Pure Sheet Copper Between the Asbestos and Range Body"

Copper never rusts. It may tarnish but it will last centuries. There are Copper Domes that have been defying the elements for hundreds of years. So, when we say a "Copper-Clad can't rust out," we mean that the copper lining overcomes all internal rust. The Copper-Clad wipes clean like a dish. If these things are so—you should know it. Not by hearsay—but by the evidence of your own eyes. Remember, this Copper-Clad crank is here to tell—to show—to explain. You won't "bother" him by asking questions.

Conventions to Decide Future Work

CHICAGO. — When delegates from every section of the country, who will largely determine the future program of the Red Cross, assemble in Columbus, Ohio, on October 14th, they will launch the first national convention of the organization. These thousands of active workers, closely in touch with the needs of their communities, will represent the 3,402 active chapters now engaged in work for ex-service men and their families, public health nursing and other community programs.

Aside from the opening address of President Harding and speeches by other national and international leaders, chief interest for delegates will center in the sectional conferences which will take up in detail the work of various departments. With the large representation from the 2,397 chapters, carrying on active soldier work, the meeting for considering this all important work, to be held on Wednesday morning, is most timely.

In addition to this conference on "Chapter Work for Ex-Service Men," other sectional meetings will consider "Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick," "Junior Red Cross," "Health Service" and "Home Service." The afternoon will be devoted to Junior Red Cross work. Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce and chairman of the European Relief Council, will speak on "The Challenge of Childhood in Foreign Lands," and Mrs. Charles Williams, president of the National Educational association, will discuss "The Challenge of Childhood in America to the Red Cross." A thousand children will participate in a Junior demonstration called "The Court of Service."

Oligation to Soldiers.

The evening will be given over to a discussion of "America's Obligation to Her Service Men" with ten minute speeches by General John G. Pershing, Theodore Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, John G. Emery, national commander of the American Legion, Major General John A. Lejeune, commander U. S. marine corps, Rev. Francis P. Duffy, Thomas Green, chairman speakers bureau of the Red Cross and Vice Chairman Frank Parsons, with Dr. Livingston Farrand, presiding.

Following the conferences of Red Cross services on the morning of Oct. 7th, there will be a luncheon, reunions of overseas workers, nurses and other persons who have served in the Red Cross. The afternoon will be devoted to foreign service and reports from workers. Sectional conferences will be held through the evening.

Two group meetings, one for delegates from city chapters and the other for representatives from chapters having rural jurisdiction will occupy the morning of Oct. 7. A mass meeting in the afternoon will precede the pageant to be held in the main auditorium on the Ohio State Exposition grounds with 2,000 participants. A chorus of 1,500 men, women and children will assist in the presentation.

Meetings of delegates by divisions will be held through the closing day of the convention. This will be the largest gathering for the current year of representatives from the 748 chapters in the central division, which comprises the states of Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, Montana, Minnesota, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

Arrangements are being made for a special train to leave Chicago on the evening of Oct. 3rd for the accommodation of delegates from the west and central west. Delegates will have a special round trip rate of one and one-half the one way fare granted them by all railroads.

GREENE COUNTY ROAD WORK PROGRESSING

Roadway between White Hall and Roodhouse to be Oiled in Near Future — Bushnell Funeral This Afternoon—Other News Notes.

White Hall, Sept. 30.—The work of preparing the roadbed between White Hall and Roodhouse is now in progress, and the application of oil is expected to begin Friday, which will necessitate the detouring of traffic for the remainder of the week. Traffic into Carrollton is now being detoured because of the hard road work. It is said that the nearest detour at the present time is thru a field near Carrollton, and that the owner is exacting a fee of 10c for each vehicle.

Harry Bushnell arrived from Sheridan, Wyo., this evening, accompanying the remains of his wife, who died in a hospital there last Monday. Rev. Roy March met the party at Galesburg. Mr. Bushnell brought along his three children. The remains were taken to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bushnell, northwest of town, and tentative funeral arrangements provide that services will be held at the Bushnell home Friday afternoon with interment in the Edwards cemetery at Barrow. This young family was becoming well fixed in this world's affairs, having proved up on a claim of 640 acres 17 miles from Gillette, Wyo., which they had improved and on which they had erected a fine home. During the summer Mr. Bushnell came back with the remains of his neighbor, George Lemon, to Manchester, who was killed by the explosion of a gasoline engine, and he had reached home only five weeks ago, when his wife was taken ill, and she had to be taken to a hospital at Sheridan, where her death occurred. Her age was 26 years, and she was the daughter of Lewis Day of Alsey.

Mrs. J. E. Porter has returned from Battle Creek, Mich., where she underwent hospital treatment, followed by an operation, and is making fine progress toward complete recovery.

Mount Stubblefield was here this week on his annual visit. He is now located at Chaffee, Mo., as train dispatcher for the St. Louis & San Francisco road, the terminal having been moved from Cape Girardeau to Chaffee during the past year, and Chaffee has been on a boom with the coming of the division point there. Mr. Stubblefield went from here to Greenfield to complete his visit, and stated that he would be back next September.

The Magic That Makes a House a Home

—that magic is MUSIC.

When the eyes of the little ones sparkle and they laugh with glee—when the toes of the older ones begin to waver—when Mother's face radiates happiness itself as she listens to the songs of McCormack and Gluck—when Dad is lost in reverie as those wonderful strains of Violin come to him from Kreisler and Heffetz—Isn't that, in truth, the Magic that makes a House a HOME?

The Victrola—the Master Magician—can make your house a HOME. We'll be glad to prove it. You can buy one for as little as $25, or as much as $350—on monthly payments surprisingly small.

JUSTICE J. A. CRUM

WEDS MRS. REINSCH

Ceremony Was Held at Home of Groom by Justice Bayha.

Justice J. A. Crum and Mrs. Lil- lie Mae Reinsch both of this city were united in marriage Saturday evening. The ceremony was held at the home of the groom 234 West North street by Justice C. O. Bayha.

Constable Ben T. Scott and George M. Hart were the witnesses. Mr. Crum is one of the city's best known residents. For many years he farmed in the vicinity of Litter- berry but in recent years has been a resident of Jacksonville. For a number of years he has been a justice of the peace. They will reside at 234 West North street.

WARNING TO THE PUBLIC

With the opening of the schools hundreds of children will be thrown into close contact for five days a week during the eight or nine months.

They will breathe air that is warmed and dampened by the lungs of their class mates. They will lick borrowed pencils. They will barter their half eaten apples and candy and they will carelessly cough and sneeze into each others' faces.

For the most part these hun- dreds of children are strong and healthy but some, however, are convalescing from contagious dis- eases and perhaps are still able to pass the germs along to their innocent school mates while some are even now suffering from early stages of contagious dis- eases as diphtheria, whooping cough, measles, scarlet fever or typhoid fever and some times consumption. Just one of these cases of contagion is capable of start- ing an epidemic of alarming por- tions and the school room is the place where he is able to do the most serious damage.

For these reasons it is extreme- ly important for parents and teachers to exercise every care in keeping the sick child out of the school room. With this end in view the following suggestions may be a guide:

1. Parents should not send to school any child with a "catch- ing" disease. If they are not sure what the trouble is, call their family doctor or school nurse, or city physician.

2. Teachers should be on the lookout for signs of contagion among the pupils. A throat tied up should be examined; a cough or running nose; discharge from the ears; feeling of the hands, face or body; sores or rash over the body. All of these are nature's warning that all is not well. It is the teachers' duty to see that suspicious cases are examined by the school nurse or health officer before exposure of all the chil- dren.

3. The school nurse should examine all children for signs or symptoms of contagious diseases at the opening of the school term.

4. The school nurses should make a superficial examination of all pupils in the following man- ner: The one making the exam- inations should stand with her back to the window and have all the pupils file past her. Pupils should roll their sleeves to the elbow and as they file by expose first the palms and the back of their hands, and then open their mouths.

An examination of this kind will reveal skin diseases, rashes, peeling from scarlet fever and other contagious diseases.

If reasonable care is exercised in detecting and excluding from school every child that can con- vey a communicable disease we will have less contagion among children in school and that in turn will mean a larger per- centage of attendance, less hard- ships for pupils and parents on account of quarantine and a greater return for the money spent for schools and education.

Please take warning, the schools have opened and con- tagious diseases are sure to fol- low.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES

The first devotional meeting of the year will be held at the Academy hall Sunday evening at 6:30. The leader of the meeting will be Edward Theis.

Miss Lucy Catlin gave a very in- teresting address on Social Service Work at the chapel exercises Friday morning. Miss Catlin is planning to give a course of lectures on Social Service Work with opportunities for practical experience. The faculty has taken action, promising college credit to any regular or special stu- dents of the college who may take this work under Miss Catlin.

The following have recently been elected as officers for the senior class: Eldon Karr of Flora, pres- ident; Helen Jones of Salem, vice president; secretary, Felix Farrell; chairman of the social committee, Byron Cully.

Gaylen Dugger, '14, expects to register at Yale university this fall for post graduate work.

Viggo Jensen, '15, whose marriage was recently announced, will be re- membered as one of the most ef- ficient football managers who ever managed an Illinois college team. Viggo was always a very popular fellow in college.

Both the college authorities and students appreciate the courtesies shown by the churches of Jack- sonville to students, and faculty at the various receptions last Thursday night. The students all report a good time.

George Dreimann and Leroy E. El- lison, both of the class of '21, are taking work in medicine at Wash- ington university at St. Louis.

Lieutenant Edward J. Alexander, '16, who has been stationed at Wash- ington, D. C., for the past year, is expecting to go to Boston soon, be- ing detailed by the navy depart- ment for study in Harvard univer- sity.

The faculty has authorized the giv- ing of a course in athletic coaching. This course will take up in turn the coaching of football, basketball, baseball and track. The course is open only to seniors and juniors who have completed at least one season as members of the various athletic squads. The classes meet Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10 to 12. This course will be offered by Coach Harmon.

Special examinations will be given on Oct. 1st and 15th to those stu- dents who wish to remove conditions or incompletes in any subjects.

At the student meeting Thursday Katherine Parker, '23, and Felix Farrell, '22, were chosen to represent the student body on the social com- mittee for the year. This committee also includes five faculty members and one representative from each of the various classes.

"PECK'S BAD BOY"

A Great Laughing Show

For All Ages

Catchy music, pretty girls who know how to sing and dance, clever comedians who will make you laugh until you cry, beautiful costumes, and appropriate scenery all go to make "Peck's Bad Boy" a new and up to the minute musical farce comedy. This attraction is the underline at the Grand Monday, matinee and night, October 3, and during the engagement popular prices will prevail which fact alone should crowd our local playhouse to its utmost capacity. The manage- ment of this ever popular farce have had it entirely rewritten by Charles W. Benner, and this season it is all new but the name. Sixteen musical numbers are in- troduced during the action of the comedy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Vaught have returned to Jacksonville from Old Mission, where they spent the sum- mer months at their farm home. They made the trip by automobile and had a very satisfactory jour- ney.

Public Confidence

(Pianos)

It is a very flattering thing to have the confidence of the public, and yet it is a very natural thing, after all, that the public should confide in those persons and those businesses that have "lived up to the mark."

The world sets high standards, these days, and much is expected of those who come before the public with claims. Telegraph, travel, war and intercommunication and the moving picture, have made people know one another and made the world's great human family think.

In this city we are standing for what we believe is right in our line of selling and the success we have attained—a great success—is gratefully acknowledged to the public.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

The chief feature of the college student activities this week is the Senior-Junior week-end at Lake Matanzas. In addition to the regular class advisers, Miss Horsburgh will be a guest of the students. The classes will return Monday evening at 7:15.

An interesting study has been made of the occupations of the members of the class of 1921. This study shows that of the twenty-four young women who received degrees last June, fifteen are engaged in teaching, four are doing advanced study, one is in Y. W. C. A. work, one in newspaper work, one is married, and two are at home. Miss Veriel Black has probably the most important position of any of the graduates. She is in charge of the Department of Health Education and Industrial Work in the Omaha, Nebraska Young Woman's Christian Association. Miss Black will be remembered by many of her friends in Jacksonville, as she was for several years in charge of the swimming classes and assisted in the work of the Physical Education Department.

Miss Winnifred Keplinger, who graduated in 1920, spent the following school year doing graduate work at Columbia University in New York City. She made a splendid record there and received her Master's Degree last June. While a student in New York she carried the regular schedule at the University and taught evening classes twice a week in one of the Settlements, on Sundays had charge of a class in one of the Mission Centers, so that she came in direct contact with many of the vital social problems that now confront us. As the result of her training and experience she has been appointed to the chair of History, Sociology and Economics in the Tennessee College at Murphysboro, Tennessee.

Mention has already been made in the local papers of the increasing number of students who come to the college for advanced standing from other schools. This year nineteen have entered for advanced standing, a year ago twelve entered, and the year before that, six, so that the increase is very gratifying to President Harker and the trustees. All of the students who have transferred to other colleges and universities have made good.

The Sophomores will entertain the Freshmen tonight in the Gymnasium. A number of unusual stunts are planned and a most delightful time is anticipated.

Word has been received from Miss Alta Marie Miller, who graduated in 1919, of her new work in Kansas City, Kansas. She has charge of the History Department and Girls' Basket Ball in the Kansas City High School, so that her responsibilities are somewhat extensive.

Miss Martha Bullard of Chicago will enter the college Monday with advanced standing from Northwestern University.

Conservatory Notes

The Conservatory began its school year on Wednesday, September 21st, with an unexpectedly larger registration in all departments. The Faculty is practically the same as last year. Miss Eloise Capps has been appointed instructor in Violin.

Mr. Quast sang a solo, accompanied by Mr. Munger, at the opening exercises in the College Chapel on Wednesday morning, September 21st. Mr. Frank Collins, Jr., had charge of the organ.

The Phi Omega Society, of the Conservatory, has resumed its meetings on Thursday evenings. The opening meeting concerned itself with business chiefly, and piano and voice numbers were contributed by Miss Clara Smith and Miss Josephine Conboy.

Miss Minnie Hoffman, a graduate of the Conservatory, has been appointed instructor in violin at the Illinois Woman's College.

Misses Virginia Bullard, Laura Jones, Ellen McCurley and Martha Priest, graduates of the Conservatory are continuing their studies in Chicago this winter. Misses Bullard, McCurley and Priest are planning to pursue their piano work under Alexander Raab, an exponent of Leschetizky, and Miss Jones is studying under Miss Carol Robinson, a pupil of Fannie Bloomfield Zeisler.

Mr. Munger received an over-Sunday visit from his nephew, George Littell who is in business in Chicago, and is also studying voice under Theodore Harrison, formerly a teacher of Mr. Quast.

Miss Mabel Forrester, formerly a student and instructor in the Conservatory, has an engagement with a concert company, with whom she begins a tour in October.

Mr. Quast has been engaged to give a song recital at the Y. W. C. A. in Springfield, by the Amateur Musical Club, on Monday, October 10th. He will be accompanied by Mrs. John Bretz, of Springfield.

SURVEY OF WHITE HALL BUILDING SITUATION

Many New Building Enterprises Now in Progress in Greene County City—Methodists Lift Debt Burden from Church—Other News Notes.

White Hall, Sept. 30.—A survey of the building situation in White Hall reveals surprising results. All mechanics have been busy on small jobs, and there is considerable new building enterprises shown that sets at rest the impression that building operations are practically at a standstill.

T. J. Grant reports having landed the contract this week for building storm rooms at the kilns on the north end of the sewer pipe works. They are to be of brick, and are designed to shelter the kiln burners in times of bad weather. He has completed an addition to the blacksmith shop that gives this department of the works total dimensions 36x40 feet all concrete blocks. Next will be erected a barn of glazed tile, 65x40x15. This will be located opposite the boiler house and west of the C. & A. track, the glazed tile being made here.

Robert Dickson has completed the erection of the portable school house, 72x24x feet, located near the main school building, and the fixtures have arrived for installation next week.

Leslie Chism is building a four-room cottage in Maple Heights.

The non-arrival of tanks is delaying completion of the gas station at the corner of Main and Bridgeport streets. The building was completed last week, and it is an attractive one. This will be one of the most attractive places on the Greene county state road when it is completed and the electrical ornamentation is put in service. The grounds are to be concreted after the tanks, pipes and wiring are laid under ground.

An addition is being built to the Stanley Thomas store on Lincoln street. The original store building was erected this spring and the business launched. This addition shows business progress.

Lieut. F. C. Smith is erecting a four-room tenant house on North Main street, south of the residence of his brother, G. T. Smith. It will also have bath and garage accommodations.

Norman Davis is extensively remodeling his farm house, about 1-2 miles southeast of White Hall. The house was raised 27 inches for a block foundation. The remodeled home will have four rooms and bath downstairs and four rooms upstairs.

T. M. Englund has made attractive changes on the Dunn place on North Main street, purchased last August.

A sleeping porch and garage has been added to the H. H. Griswold home on North Main street.

G. W. Boyd has built a massive porch and made other improvements, including painting, since acquiring the Fairbanks residence on North Main street, and is now installing a heating system. There has been an enormous amount of heating changes this summer along the line of the municipal heating system that was abandoned following last winter.

R. T. Clark has completed a fine tenant house on West Bridgeport street.

Mrs. M. J. Gahuly is improving her home on Carrollton street.

A. J. Harding has completed a bungalow adjoining the greenhouses. It has five rooms and bath, with polished floors, colonnade and cellar, 38x28. A garage will be built this fall. Last year he built the store in connection with the greenhouses, and in his program to build each year will carry the construction of more greenhouses next year.

A. E. Cleveland reports that he has laid 3,000 feet of oak flooring for various parties this summer.

The Grange block has undergone a thorough papering and painting, the work being retarded by a fire in one of the office rooms recently.

John Schier is erecting accommodations for storing the threshing outfit he and a company of others purchased this year and operated. He will erect a new barn in connection in rear of his premises on North Main street.

Miss Edith Walton has purchased the R. E. Bell property on Centennial street, and will have it remodeled for the purpose of a private hospital. The hospital proposition is one that the people are sincerely interested in, and it should take precedence over other public building proposition at this time. There have been indications at times that a hospital is a near possibility and only recently it was given out that the future may reveal a Griswold memorial hospital.

Notwithstanding the needs and sentiments for a hospital enterprise, the congregation of the First Baptist church is becoming well organized to launch a building proposition that will mean the enlargement of the present structure or a new building. Every department of the church seems devoting efforts in this direction, and next spring will likely see actual work begun. The change made in the front entrance this year is a substantial and needed improvement, but the sentiment and proffers of financial assistance for the larger proposition will rule the activities of the congregation during the fall and winter months. Folks of the Baptist faith in this community outnumber any other local church and almost equal the combined membership of all other churches, and it should not remain at the foot in the matter of attendance and activity. Rev. W. R. Johnson, a former pastor, was here this week and stated that while he was engaged in state evangelistic work five years ago he tested the sentiment by soliciting contributions for a new building, and with little effort listed $2,000. There are other funds and contributions available that give the building proposition a good footing. The church has provided for all current indebtedness.

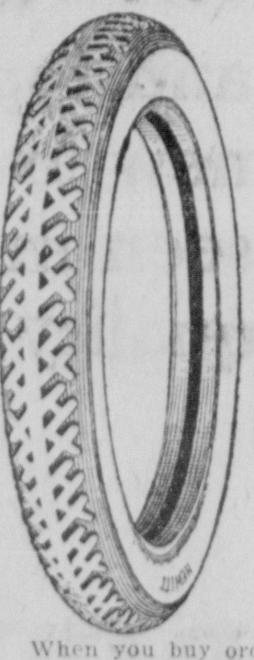

The Methodists have just had a jubilee over the lifting of all indebtedness for improvements and otherwise during the past year, include payment of sewer tax. This announcement was followed by singing the Doxology. Then

$525.00

The New Price Of The Chevrolet "490"

Is $25.00 less than the introductory price of this model, fully equipped, in 1915—costs less today, but represents far greater value than ever.

It has been improved in construction and equipment. Figured on a basis of the value of equipment added and improvements made, Chevrolet "Four Ninety" is sold today at a price lower than ever before.

This also holds true of other Chevrolet models. Model "FB" touring car is today listed at $160 less than its introductory price three years ago. Chevrolet Model "G" and Model "T" trucks, also, have reached low price levels that have not maintained for years.

Judged by price alone, any Chevrolet model is of greater value today than ever before. But this is not a fair comparison, since all Chevrolet models have been improved in construction, design or equipment.

The purchaser today secures the advantage of this added value.

In this way an automobile costs less to buy than in 1917, and it is generally of better value because of better equipment or construction.

The Chevrolet is by far the Best and Cheapest Light Car in America. Your model is Here now on our salesroom floor.

Church Services Today

First Baptist Church.—Rally Day. Four hundred and then some! Every scholar cut! Fifty in Prof. Lacy's student class. Fathers are invited to bring the cradle roll members. The bell taps at 9:30 a.m. Supt. Kopperl says: A six week's attendance contest begins at that hour. Following the Sunday school hour will occur the annual Home Coming of the church. The time is 10:45 a.m. The pastor, Rev. A. P. Howells, will preach on "A Home Coming Resolution." The quartet and the organist will have selections in keeping with the day. At the conclusion of morning worship the Lord's supper will be observed. Then follows the Home Coming dinner in the basement of "our Father's house," the old fashioned kind where all the children come home. After dinner talks will be made concluding with one by Rev. M. L. Pontius of the Central Christian church. The Baptist college students away from home are invited to be our guests. The B.Y.P.U. both senior and intermediate will meet at 6:30 p. m., the subject being "Thy Will Be Done With My Time." An attendance contest in the form of a Ford-Packard cross country run will start on Sunday. Get in on it. Evening worship is held at 7:30. The sermon subject is another Home Coming theme entitled "Swine or Calf." Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. This will include the quarterly business session.

Central Christian church—Myron L. Pontius, minister. Bible school at 9:30. Ecn Roodhouse, superintendent. Promotion Day exercises will be held at 10:45 followed by sermon by the pastor on the subject, "My Father's Business." Evening service at 7:30. Theme of the sermon: "I Am a Citizen of No Mean Country." Acts 21:39. Music by the choir under direction of Mrs. Abe Wehl. C. E. services at 6:30 p. m. Leader of the Senior C. E., Miss Mildred Mikesell, of the Intermediate, John Bolman, and of the Junior, Miss Frances Frisch. All not worshipping elsewhere are cordially invited to worship here.

State Street Presbyterian church—Rev. W. H. Marbach, pastor; T. M. Tomlinson, Sunday school superintendent; Mrs. Barr Brown, choir leader; Mrs. Helen Ayers Bullard organist. Sunday is "Rally Day" at State Street church. The Sunday school will meet in the big auditorium to accommodate the crowd we expect. Members, newcomers, visitors and friends are urged to attend. The morning and evening services of worship will be held at the usual hours, with preaching by the pastor. An upward look to God in services of worship will mean much to you during the stress and strain of week-day activities. For the sake of Mondays, Tuesdays and Saturdays, worship God on Sunday in common worship with those who want to "hold fast to that which is good." Welcome.

Salem Evangelical Lutheran Church—East College street, Rev. J. G. Kuppler. Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Public worship in English at 10:30 a. m. Northminster Presbyterian church—Walter E. Spooner, minister. Preaching at 10:45 a. m. by the pastor. The morning subject will be "The Modern Distrust of God's Word." A special invitation is given to this morning service, because of
